

The Transportation Reimbursement Account (TRA)

Introducing the TRA

A transportation reimbursement account (TRA) from CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield and CareFirst BlueChoice (collectively, "CareFirst") helps you save money on transportation and parking expenses while commuting to and from work. By paying for these expenses with pretax dollars, you decrease the amount of taxes you pay and increase your take-home pay for the year.

What you need to know about TRAs

- Using a TRA can save you up to 40% of your commuting costs.¹
- You decide how much to set aside for work-related transportation expenses.
- The funds will automatically be deducted from each paycheck.
- Unused money from your TRA will roll over from month to month.

Enroll in the TRA offered by your employer.

Determine how much you want to contribute—you can change the amount each month.

Be sure to save all your receipts for reimbursement.

¹ Depending on IRS guidelines for your federal and state tax bracket

Pay for your commute and parking tax-free

You can use your TRA for:

- Public transportation, vanpools, or ride sharing with Lyft and Uber
- Transit passes for buses, trains and other public transportation
- Parking garage or secure bicycle storage expenses
- Lyft Line and UberPool using the Commuter Check Prepaid Mastercard®
- Vanpooling that is employer, employee or privately operated and used for going to work

Qualified parking expenses:

- Parking provided at or near work
- Parking on or near a location providing mass transit, vanpooling or carpooling

You can't use your TRA for:

- Gas and mileage from your daily commute
- Expenses for your spouse or dependents
- Vanpooling with a vehicle having a seating capacity of five or less
- Airport parking
- Taxis
- Tolls

TRA contribution limits

- The IRS places limits on how much you can save for transportation tax-free:

Qualified parking 2024	$315 per month
Public transportation and vanpools 2024	$315 per month

Easy payment options

With a TRA, you can choose from a variety of reimbursement options.

- Commuter check vouchers—Available in any amount $5 or higher, these are redeemable for passes, tickets or cards anywhere transit vouchers are accepted.
- Prepaid MasterCard®—This reloadable debit card can be used at designated transit agencies and parking facilities.
- Smart cards—Load pretax dollars on to your transit smart card via your online account.
- Parking direct pay—Pretax dollars are sent as payments directly to your parking provider.
- Parking cash reimbursements—Submit claims for reimbursement via check or direct deposit.
